

The Writing Code

You can use your computer to perform these tasks and answer these questions about The Writing Code. Make sure your answers are complete and thorough. Your answers are due on Wednesday (1/25) by class.

1. List one important quote or fact from the film and describe why this struck you as important.
2. How did writing come about? What reasons did writing develop?
3. What is the definition of writing being used in the film? Why do you agree or disagree with this definition?
4. After watching the film, go back into Ong and find one place in Ong you didn't quite get until you saw the film.

Write the Ong quote and then describe how the film helped ya get it.